

160 lettered, blue-backed cards, of the best quality playing board, in an attractive marbled box. Capable of a child's comprehension, it is still absorbingly interesting to the oldest participant, and can be played evening after evening without becoming tiresome. Banking will outwear in enjoyment a dozen ordinary games. RETAIL PRICE 25 cts.

THE OLD HUNTER.—An illustrated game well known throughout New England. Equalled by few in merit and attractive style. RETAIL PRICE 50 cts.

PARLOR POLO.—This is a new board game, which closely imitates the regular out-door game in all its essential points. It is exceedingly exciting and the games vary greatly in length. A box containing dice boxes, dice, counters, etc., accompanies each board. A very salable article.

RETAIL PRICE 75 cts.

BASE BALL.—Adapted for the table. A board game of unusual merit for two players. It is by far the best imitation of the great out-door game, Base Ball, that has yet been adapted to in-door use. Base ball players, old or young, greatly enjoy and appreciate it. RETAIL PRICE 75 cts.

1885

DESCRIPTIVE LIST

— OF —

GAMES

PUBLISHED BY

Geo. S. Parker & Co.,

SALEM, MASS.

GAMES

Published by GEO. S. PARKER & CO.,

No. 135 Bridge Street, Salem, Mass.

STOREROOMS, DERBY WHARF.

THE DICKENS GAME. Introducing characters from the novels of Charles Dickens. A very neat, attractive and saleable entertainment. Especially popular with lovers of the works of the great English novelist. Handsomely printed cards; vignette of Dickens on the label. RETAIL PRICE 25 cts.

IVANHOE.—A new illustrated game, differing in style, appearance and manner of playing from any other published. Founded on Scott's famous novel, and delighting all who play it. Pretty pearl blue cards with quotations and illustrations. Ivanhoe is one of the most original and delightful games that has been issued for many a day. Easily learned. For young or old. RETAIL PRICE 25 cts.

SPECULATION.—This is not a complex affair with a "picture of a bull and bear on the label," but a highly amusing and exciting game, especially adapted for little folks, who with pink and white cards speculate to their heart's content on teas, spices, wheat, etc. Very simple, easily learned, and capable of any child's comprehension. RETAIL PRICE 25 cts.

FAMOUS MEN.—The popular edition of a well known New England game. Sixty-four cards. RETAIL PRICE 25 cts.

GREAT BATTLEFIELDS.—Interesting and instructive. Played on the popular "book" or "set" method, greatly improved by new ideas used only in this game. Pink box and buff colored cards. RETAIL PRICE 25 cts.

BAKER'S DOZEN.—An attractive board game for little folks. Handsomely lithographed in colors. Box containing counters accompanies each game. Formerly retailed for 50 cents. RETAIL PRICE 25 cts.

DR. BUSBY.—The original Henry P. Ives game, published in the same form as when first issued over forty years ago. Twenty illustrated cards, colored by hand, representing those interesting characters with which so many people are familiar. Dr. Busby, Spade the Gardener, Doll the Dairy Maid, Mr. Ninnycometwitch, etc., etc. The only 25 ct. game published that is colored by hand. RETAIL PRICE 25 cts.

BANKING.—This original and exciting game is undoubtedly one of the best ever published. It consists of